Mary Beth Maziarz

originally hails from the Chicago area, where the blues and coffeehouse scenes influenced her young songwriting. After college, she moved to Park City area, where she's been ever since – loving the mountain life, the spectacular natural backdrop of the Wasatch Front, and the great locals. She's released 7 albums independently and her work has appeared on several national soundtracks. Her music has been featured on over 50 TV shows and films – you might have heard her voice and not even known it! This year, she's releasing her first kids CD – "My Beachtown" – in tandem with a new animated series called "Crab Cove." Mary Beth lives in Park City, Utah, with her husband, photographer Mark Maziarz, and darling daughter Daisy.
