With Opening Act: JaNae Kotter

JaNae Kotter is a local singer/songwriter who writes songs about life and the world around us. Her music combines strong vocals and emotions with deceptively simple guitar arrangements to share life's emotions through music. More information can be found at www.janaemusic.com.

Neil Bradley Owen...a genuine, heartfelt Singer/Songwriter of the first degree. Instantly memorable, original melodies and lyrics.

Neil began writing songs as a teenager. Most were timid attempts, although he confesses to recording one of his very early attempts from the 70s on his most recent CD, "Front Porch Prose." After high school came real life... a mission, marriage, children, work.... You know the story.

Neil continued writing and performing and finally put out his first album in the early 90's, called "Just Blue." Neil and "Just Blue" got some limited radio play in the Northeast United States where he was living at the time.

Says Neil, "This newest release "Front Porch Prose" is the one I've been waiting years to make. Here are songs of life, faith, hope & love. I hope you'll give it a listen, and feel free to drop me a note and let me know what you think! All the best to you and hope to see you at a show someday...."
